Important information:

In the event of a change in the tax structure, air and rail fares, or fuel prices, Minar Travel reserves the right to change the retail price of the tour. Our priority is to provide the hotels indicated in the tour package, while, given the high demand for tours to India, in case of unavailability of the hotels indicated in the tour program, Minar Travels reserves the right to replace the hotel with a hotel of the same category.

As you know, not all hotels of the same category apply the same pricing policy. Therefore, if an additional payment is required when booking a room in another hotel, then the additional payment is made at the expense of the foreign tour operator or the client who has previously received his full consent to this.

Responsibility: _

- Minar Travels is not responsible and is not obliged to pay any compensation in case of cancellation of the tour or change of the tour program for reasons beyond the control of the company (force majeure), such as natural disasters, riots, political strikes, aircraft delays/trains, etc.
- In such situations, any additional costs associated with changing the tour program are paid by the client or the foreign tour operator.
- In case of cancellation of a partially completed tour due to the above events, deductions or penalties for unused services are borne by the client or the foreign tour operator.
- Your passport must be valid for at least six months from the date you start your trip.
- The order of scheduled services mentioned in this itinerary is subject to change depending on ground availability or climatic conditions of the place, but they will always be provided as they are purchased.
- Check-in and check-out times for hotels are governed by the formalities of each hotel and may be as follows: Check-in at 14:00. and check out at 12:00.
- Rates are subject to availability at the time of booking and are confirmed for special dates or periods/Christmas, New Year & other national long weekends or holidays.
